Auctioneer's Note: Randy has been collecting antiques & collectibles for most of his life. His expanding collection has been displayed in his commercial building in Waverly for several years and, if you could catch him there in between his Tree Service jobs, he would let you browse and enjoy what he was so proud of. Randy decided to sell his building and with it being sold, he has the need for several auctions to be held at the Waverly Community Building with indoor seating, heating/cooling and good food.
